A duo performance by composers Makiko Nishikaze and Peter Ablinger – objects, recordings, videos

WESTWIND is the title of Makiko Nishikaze's and Peter Ablinger's first duo performance. The title 'westwind' is a translation of Makiko's surname 'Nishikaze'. The materials of the performance are derived from the sound of wind. The object related and semi-improvised wind actions by Makiko Nishikaze are painted over by an in detail unforeseen overlapping and contextualizing of videos by Peter Ablinger, who is acting as a VJ for the first time.
